The City Commission recessed for a Settlement and Strategy Session concerning Aviator PPG, LLC v. City of Lake Wales at 6:01 p.m.

The Meeting was reconvened at 6:50 p.m.

6. PROCLAMATIONS AND AWARDS

6.1. PROCLAMATION - School Choice Week

Mayor Fultz proclaimed January 20-26, 2019 as School Choice week and presented the proclamation to Jimmy Nelson and Marie Charrington-Gray of the Lake Wales Charter Schools.

7. COMMUNICATIONS AND PETITIONS

Mayor Fultz said that Kenneth Fields, City Manager, has an announcement. Mr. Fields said that the sponsor of Resolution 2018-22 has requested that the item be withdrawn. As it was announced that we would take comments on this issue he recommended that the Commission still take comments on the issue.

Mike Carter, resident, said that as many Federal Workers may be struggling due to the shutdown and suggested allowing them to defer utility payments if needed.

Antonio Reyes, resident, said he wanted the Commission to be aware of concerns about certain police officers specifically Sgt Alvin Maultsby. He has reported his concerns to the Deputy Chief and Sandra Davis. He said that on June 6 he was shot at close range. The report has Maultsby's name and it reads as if the shot was done in self-defense and it wasn't. He says he is being threatened and harassed by the suspect. Chris Velasquez, Police Chief, said they will go after anyone who is doing something they shouldn't. If a police officer is doing something wrong they will be held accountable. Deputy Mayor Robin Gibson asked if there was some kind of restraining order in place between the suspect and victim. Chief Velasquez said they will do what they can to keep the victim or witness safe.

Natalie Valentine, resident, reported that she has been harassed by Officer Maultsby and other officers because she has made complaints against him. She gave examples. She said she has never been convicted on any charge and that she is a good mother to her children. She does not want to lose her children or her ability to get a job.

Chevon Baccus, resident, reported that she is developing an online news site called lakewalesnews.net. It will include topics in various areas. She has 17 volunteer writers and editors many with journalism experience. They will depend a lot on community correspondents to provide information and pictures. The site will be free and they will encourage dialogue but personal attacks will not be allowed. They will accept donations and sponsorships. She encouraged everyone to participate.

RECOMMENDATION

Staff does not have a recommendation concerning approval of Resolution 2018-22.

BACKGROUND

At the September 19, 2018 City Commission meeting Commissioners asked staff to bring forth a Resolution concerning the possible takeover of McLaughlin Middle School by the Lake Wales Charter Schools. This resolution was provided to City staff.

At the October 2, 2018 the resolution was tabled pending an informational forum on the subject.

This forum took place on January 10, 2019 at Vanguard School.

OTHER OPTIONS

Do not approve Resolution 2018-22.

FISCAL IMPACT

There is no fiscal impact to Resolution 2018-22.

[Agenda Memo ends]

Mayor Fultz said that this item was tabled but will open this issue for public comment.

OPENED PUBLIC COMMENT

Brian Marbutt non-resident, said he brought this resolution from the chamber which they thought was simple but wasn't. He was glad that the forum happened and a lot of good came from it. This issue is not up to the City. This was a request for support for the decision and for one of our best economic tools of the City.

Billy Townsend, non-resident and School Board Member, read a letter discussing the issues related to the topic. He explained that he is speaking for himself and not on behalf of the Polk County School Board. He shared an idea to have Bok Academy operate at the same campus as McLaughlin Middle and explained why this would be a good idea. He shared copies of this letter with the Commission members.

Jimmy Nelson, non-resident and Chair for the Lake Wales Charter Schools, thanked Mr. Townsend for coming and his ideas. They would like to work with the School Board and staff to find the best way forward. He thanked the Mayor and Commission for their help with moving the issue forward

CLOSED PUBLIC COMMENT

Deputy Mayor Robin Gibson thanked Mr. Townsend for coming and his constructive distinction between the school systems. He was glad that the forum took place so that more of our community knows what is going on.

11. CITY ATTORNEY

Mr. Galloway had no report.

12. CITY MANAGER

Mr. Fields reminded the commission that the City website address has changed to WWW.LAKEWALESFL.GOV and that staff email addresses are similarly changed. There are many benefits to having a .gov email address.

Mr. Fields said that evaluation forms on himself and the City Attorney have been distributed to the Commission.
